

ENGADIN
SKIMARATHON

PRESENTED BY helvetia

Rules «Engadin Skimarathon – individual»

Event duration

The "Engadin Skimarathon – individual" will be held from March 3rd to March 9th 2022.

Important: It is not possible to start after March 9th, especially not on Sunday, March 13th, 2022, during the Engadin Skimarathon.

Eligibility

All ladies and gentlemen with a birth year of 2005 and older are eligible to participate.

Skiing technique

Freestyle and classic; the whole track is groomed (classic tracks where possible).

Track

Maloja – S-chanf (42 km). There will be no half marathon distance offered.

On the section between Pontresina and Samedan Airport, the route deviates from the original Engadin Skimarathon route and will be signposted. There are various road crossings on the course, which will not be closed or prepared. At most, skis must be taken off to cross the road. Cars have the right of way and the general traffic rules apply. In La Punt the time will be neutralized.

Registration and registration deadline

Registration is only possible online and will be closed on March 9th, 2022 at 11 am, provided that there are still starting places available. If a person wants to participate several times, they must register online again and pay the entry fee again.

Participation restriction

The organizer has the right to limit the number of participants if necessary.

Entry fee

The entry fee is CHF 20.- and includes the following services:

- Start number incl. timing chip
- Arm band for start number
- Time measurement
- Finisher Diploma (digital)
- Cross-country pass for the given day (the start number serves as a trail pass on the day of the race on the Engadin Skimarathon course)

The entry fee is exclusive of any transaction costs (e.g. credit card fees).

Cancellation

If the race is cancelled due to COVID-19, the entry fee will be refunded. If the competition cannot take place for any other reason, no refund will be made. Those who cannot start at the "Engadin Skimarathon – individual" will not receive a refund of the entry fee. In case of doubtful race conditions, the organizer will provide information via the website.

Timing chip issue

The timing chip issue (start number) is located at the start in Maloja. The exact location will be communicated by email at the end of February. The timing chip issue is open daily from 8:00 am to 12 noon on race days. Wearing a protective mask is mandatory. COVID-19 protection measures must be complied with.

Timing chip

The timing chip (start number) is given with a strap and must be worn around the arm. The start number must be worn externally to guarantee a flawless time measurement (not in the jacket/pants pocket or in the backpack).

Arrival and Departure

The journey to the start in Maloja and the return journey from the destination in S-chanf is a matter for the participants. There are few public parking spaces available in Maloja. There are no parking spaces available at the destination area in S-chanf. We recommend the use of public transport for the journey.

The Engadin bus is available to take you to the start in Maloja. The return from S-chanf can be made by Rhaetian Railway.

Please notice: The train stop S-chanf Marathon is not served by the Rhaetian Railway. A transport from the finish area to the train station S-chanf will be provided every half hour.

Start times and start procedure

Participants will start individually between March 3rd and March 9th, 2022 between 8.00 am and 12 noon. Exception: On Sunday March 6th, 2022, the start is only possible between 11:30 am and 1 pm, due to the Engadin Women's Race. After 12 noon the start will be closed and the timing will not be triggered. The day of the race or the exact start time does not have to be announced in advance.

As soon as the participant crosses the starting line, time measurement is activated. For 30 minutes, the starting line can then be crossed as many times as you wish and only the last triggered time applies. This provides enough time for photos, etc.

If the participant forfeits the race, it cannot be restarted (time measurement will not be triggered). It is possible to participate several times at "Engadin Skimarathon - individual", but it requires a new registration for the race.

Finish

The finish in S-chanf will be closed at 3 pm. Skiers who arrive at the finish line after the official finish will no longer be ranked and the run therefore cannot be evaluated.

Refreshments

There are no refreshments available on the route.

Transport of personal effects

No transport of personal effects is available. Personal items must be carried with you.

Ambulance service

An ambulance service on the route is not offered. In case of emergency call 144.

Repair and waxing service

A pole, repair or waxing service is not offered.

Starting and ranking list

All participants are ranked separately in a national ranking by men and women. If you participate several times, the name appears several times on the leaderboard.

Prices

Great prizes will be raffled off among all participants:

- Weekend in Engadin Hotels
- Cross-country skiing passes for the year 2023
- Starting places for the Engadin Ski Marathon 2023

Qualification Engadin Skimarathon

Participation in the "Engadin Skimarathon – individual" is not considered to be a participation in the Engadin Skimarathon and the time is not considered as a qualification time for future Engadin Skimarathon.

Data protection

With the approval of the competition regulations, the privacy policy of Datasport is also approved. The names and results of the participants are published on the official ranking list of the chronometer. Participants have the right to demand the deletion and restriction of the use of personal data from Datasport and to object in writing to such processing of personal data.

Information of doubtful conditions

In case of doubtful conditions the organizer informs over the website.

Insurance / Liability

Each participant must be accident insured and fully responsible for his / her state of health. The organizer assumes no liability for accidents, lost items, theft and other damages of any kind. Also, the organizer rejects all liability towards spectators and third-parties.

Acceptance technical instructions and regulations

With the payment of the entry fee the participants accept without reservation these technical instructions and these regulations of the Engadin Skimarathon.
